From the East

My Brother,

As the calendar turns another page so do we as free and Accepted Masons. The year is half over and we are ready to go dark. But that does not mean we are to stop being Masons. Masonry is a lifelong commitment filled with many duties and obligations. One is the fact that we never turn our head when a Brother is in need. We took an obligation to remind a Brother of his failings and to vindicate his character when traduced.

We are given many gifts by God and one is to help out one another when the need arises. Let us not forget the next few months we can give to God, our country, our neighbor and mankind all that we possess. Let everyone see that the lodge might be silent but men of Cannon Lodge #104 F&AM are hard at work. They continue to give to the community and of themselves like no other man has given. Truly this man is a Mason!

Remember Brother, the men and women past present and future that have given their all for us so we may have the freedoms we enjoy.

Fraternally yours,
Anthony P. Stelacio, WM

In case of sickness or distress, please contact the
